European Bioeconomy: Is interregional collaboration relevant?

“...the opportunities that the bioeconomy offers and the importance of the Bioeconomy Strategy coordination are increasingly recognised by EU Member States and regions. [...] However, there is still room for further development in Member States, and also the potential contribution of cities to the bioeconomy remains largely unexploited.”

European initiatives of regional interest

- European Bioeconomy Stakeholders Manifesto (2017)
- Updated European Bioeconomy Strategy and its Action Plan (2018)
- The European Commission's Knowledge Centre for Bioeconomy

ERIAFF Network

<http://www.eriaff.com/>

The European Regions for Innovation in Agriculture, Food and Forestry is a network created on September 19th 2012 by a core group of 24 European Regions, at the initiative of the Regional Government of Tuscany.

89 Partners: 51 Members and 38 Observers from 19 European Countries + Ukraina

With an informal structure, ERIAFF has allowed European Regions to organize themselves into dynamic networks on diverse aspects related with Agricultural Innovation, facilitating both information flow and links across territories.
